FOR SALE-Four-room brick and screen sleeping room, modern, close E. E. PASCOE, 110 North Center St.

THE ARIZONA REPUBLICAN

WE HAVE CALLS for furnished and unfurnished houses. List your

E. E. PASCOE.

TWENTY-SECOND YEAR

18 PAGES

18 PAGES

VOL. XXII. NO. 10.

"PFAVINE" PEOPLE

Open Arms

A DELIGHTFUL DRIVE OVER THE TERRITORIAL HIGHWAY

The Most Magnificent Banquet Ever Spread in Arizona Crowned the First Day's Entertainment of the Guests from the Salt River Valley-The Address of Governor Sloan-The Ladies of the Monday Club Looked After MENSIC'S PRICE Their Sisters from the South.

Prescott, Ariz 27.-(Special)-if forward to a development of all their A Disappointed Fight Crowd at Los the cordiality of the reception awaitthe hospitable city waving and crying possess will be the highway between the last moment he refused to nter to stave off inevitable defeat, which Maddened, Wolgast set a furious pace greetings to the accompaniment of Phoenix and Prescott. He neged that the ring until he had received $1 250, seemed imminent in many of the pre- and fairly rained left and right and bunting whisked the visitors up town to various hotels where accommodations had been engaged.

A short rest and the Phoenix visitors were taken in automobiles to inspect the tract in which free lots are being offered to those who will take up a summer residence in Prescott. ter of the city, located on the beauti-

ARIZONA'S HIGHWAY.

The drive over the territorial highmobiles started from the plaza. The pilot car contained R. N. Fredericks, Foster. president of the Prescott chamber of commerce: Governor Sloan and Presideut McClintock of the Phoenix board of trade, the other machines containing excursionists with prominent Prescottites driving. The drive is one of the most beautiful in the country. The road is second to none. In many respects it exceeds the famous Poosevelt highway, especially as to construction.

the most magnificent banquet ever served in Arizona. The menu was an elaborate one and the decorations were tasty in the extreme. R. N. Fredericks, and on his left President McClintock of delay the Phoenix board of trade. FELICITOUS REMARKS.

who delivered an address of welcome, ed in Judge Borwell's granting of a pose there are more than 400 miners followed by a response from Colonel postponement until July 5 was ren-McClintock of Phoenix Governor Sloan, dered necessary, they said, by the fact Rev. Fisher, E. E. Kirkland. Elliott that they will have to bring from many Evans, Harry Welch, B. E. Marks of parts of the United States the evidence Evans, Harry Welch, B. E. Marks of Phoenix and Dr. J. W. Flinn, E. S. with which to combat the state's case. CURIQUS ACCIDENT Clark, Malcolm Fraser, William Alvord. It was stated in court that a postpone-F. O. Smith of Prescott and Gus Hay- ment from June 1st was desired beman of San Francisco also spoke.

congratulations to Phoenix for the the attorneys have not had sufficient splendld attendance on the excursion opportunity for preparation. and dilated on the good to accrue from a fellow feeling between Prescott and come up a mile and smile awhile. I wish to add, smile all the while during your sojourn up a mile." EVERYTHING NAILED DOWN. Mayor Goldwater spoke of his long residence in Prescott and Arizona. He said: "There is nothing Yavapai coun- A Violator Confined in Darkness and in twenty-three, of Detroit was crushed ty has which can be taken from it and we invite you to share in our climate and reside in a place where the tax collector and dog catcher are unknown." He closed with an appeal for days in Prescott and said he was well cation for a writ of habeas corpus was qualified to tell of conditions in Ya- made to Judge Kent. The application Roberts, acting as Bean's mechanvapal as he had been here years ago, was made on behalf of C. E. Gould, a not so long, however, as Morris Gold- traveling photographer, who was water, who chased the cliff dwellers out chained in a barn at Glendale, his comof their lair. He spoke in the highest mitment having been ordered by Justterms of the reception accorded the ex- les Hawk of that bailiwick. cursionists and predicted for the future | Gould, a recent arrival at Glendale, the most cordial relations.

Sloan by the toastn'aster, the banquet- thorities that they could recall no Jackrabbit, which had just completed ers arose from their seats and cheered license having been issued for that a lap at seventy miles an hour, felt for several minutes. The governor was privilege. When the matter was brought bis car give when he reached the in one of his happiest moods and to the notice of the photographer he talked as one Prescottite to another. He said that he did not regard himself as tered unsteadiness, but in an attempt spoke in glowing terms of the splendid exercising any privilege, but that he to straighten out he was whirled off efforts of Harry Welch in promoting was in the enjoyment of a right. the excursion and said that his labors should have been crowned by a much tion that he would pay no license and earth, turned over and lay in masses than if he had been livestock. e validity of the licer or

PHOENIX, ARIZONA, SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 28, 1911.

Prescott Awaited the Phoenix Visitors With Wide

He said that seemingly the thre years of discouragement through which the people had passed but tended to ing them in the "Mile High City" it increase a desire to proclaim the was dissipated when the train reached wealth and beauties of the county to Memsic, the local lightweight "trial a towel into the ring, acknowledging way across the ring, his back hitting Prescott. Gathered at the station the outside world: . He touched on the were more than a thousand citizens of subject of good roads and said that round bont with Johnny McCarthy of It was a furious battle throughout, swing which he caught on the jaw San Francisco at Vernon foday. At characterized chiefly by Burns' ability which he caught on the jaw subject of good roads and said that music by a full military band. Thirty- the people keep up the interest in the five autos gally decorated with flags subject of good roads and felt sure that the feeling of reciprocity betweeen the twin cities would bring good results to both LADIES ENTERTAINED.

The ladies of Phoenix were most de lightfully entertained at the Yavapai club by the members of the Monday club who were hostesses for the The site is an ideal one up in the pines chamber of commerce. Tables were and only a short distance from the cenclumber of commerce. Tables were cations being Indian pinks, which are seculiar to the Prescott hills. The clad hills a suitable setting for the menu and appointments At the conclu-Several Phoenicians are already erecting homes, while others selected lots today. Much misunderstanding seems to exist concerning the site, for which research to site and five hundred were played until a late hour. Cards were preceded by a musicale, and a literature of the concerning the site, for musicale, and a literature of the concerning the site, for musicale, and a literature of the concerning the site, for musicale, and a literature of the concerning the site, for musicale, and a literature of the concerning the site of the dinner the ladies adjourned to the assembly room where, bridge and five hundred were played until a late hour. which reason it may be well to men- musicale and a literary program tion that lots only 200 yards from the site were sold a few weeks ago for $1 100 Baker and Mrs. E. C. Smith; secretaries, Mrs. N. L. Levy and Mrs. H. D. The drive over the territorial high-way was one of the pleasurable events of the evening was Mrs. J. C. Sievens, of the day. At 4 o'clock thirty auto- Mrs. George Ruffner and Mrs. F. W.

WILL NOT BE DILATORY

Three hundred guests were present at But a Delay to July 5 Was Necessary.

president of the Prescott chamber of Los Angeles, Ma 27.-The attorneys commerce, was the toastmaster. On for the McNamaras said today that the his right was seated Governor Sloan defense would not pursue a policy of

The motion for delay for the accused Mayor Morris Goldwater of Prescott, men to enter their pleas which resultcause the matters the attorneys wish Toastmaster Fredericks extended to take up are of such importance that

Phoenix. He said; "We invited you here to THE LICENSE ORDINANCE ENFORCED AT GLENDALE

Chains.

The newly incorporated town of all Arizonians to get together for the Glendale has a summary way of enforcing its license ordinance, as was Colonel McClintock spoke of his early made known yesterday when an appliwas catching the shadow of the resi-GOVERNOR SLOAN'S ADDRESS. dents of that corporation when sud-Upon the introduction of Governor dealy it occurred to the municipal au-

Prescott and Yavapai county looking and sentenced to time as an alternative apart, application for a branch jail, but th board of supervisors, having many oth er things on hand, had not "got around to it." Accordingly, Gould was comnitted to a stable and, for greater seurity, was chained in it, more secure

There has been some doubt as to Hendale, and the authori, unicipality believed that this be a good time to get a judicial expression concerning it, but the question of the validity of the ordinance was obscured by a question of the regulariof the proceedings attending the arest, trial and incarceration of Gould.

It was admitted on the part of the municipal authorities that there had been no time-consuming formalities, Gould said he had been taken into ustody and asked whether he intended to pay a license or not and when he ad not answered in the affirmative e was forthwith placed on trial, denies he benefit of a jury or clergy, prompt y convicted and was almost immediately consigned to darkness and chains On this showing Judge Kent directed that he be unchained and allowed to go at large on a deposit of $6. He had inhabited the stable four days. The amount of the license was $10.

WAS TOO HIGH

Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cat., May 27.—Georg. horse," ran out of a scheduled twenty much return for the fight. The assemblage shouted as one man, and capture the championship.

is rissed the crowd

HAS GONE CRAZY

At the Gates.

San Diego, Cal., May 27,-Pryce's dvance guard has reached Ensenada. There is a panic in the city and an information was brought to San Diego

W. T. Kierman of Jazella, Cal. one d the passengers who came up on "The rebeis have reached Ensenada and the residents of the town larve to know what to expect next. We cruits came from Los Angeles. 1 supin the city."

ALSO A FATAL ONE

An Automobile Race in a Colorado

Denver, Colo., May 27.-Two motor ers in a 300-mile Memorial day race, urned turtle in the three-mile motor course at Sable, ten miles east of here today, killing one man and injuring three. Robert W. Bean, aged to death beneath his car. The injured are Otto E. Manglitz, of Denver, two ribs broken, internal injuries; Lee Bert Roberts, of Denver, badly bruised; Harry Ball, of Denver, head bruised. Harry Ball is one of the youngest professional motor drivers Last year he won the Denver-Cheyenne race. Manglitz, his machanician, is most seriously injured of the three ician, was thrown clear of the car. The accident was the most peculiar. Bean, driving a Studebaker car strepper, was running fifty miles an hour when the car veered to the right. In an effort to right the machine he swing around and shot off the course into the field to the left. Bell, at the wheel of an Apperson point where the Studebaker encounthe course to the right. Both cars That was tantamount to a declara- leaped into the air and struck soft larger attendance. He was glad to see he was taken into custody, convicted of wreckage over one hundred yards

Strong Fight

The Oaklander Twice Put It in Doubt, But Was Later So Horribly Punished That the Crowd Begged That Bout Be Stopped.

The Arena, San Francisco, May 27,ing in their scheduled twenty-round the aggressive only when he fancied fight that the challenger's seconds an opening presented itself. of the seventeenth round, and threw to the stomach which sent Burns half defeat.

the small audience not premising him ceding rounds. Although constantly smashes to the face. He swung two Manager McCarty of the Arena an- flowing from his nostrils and mouth, which lifted the Californian clear off ounced the predicament, and left to Burns never lost his head and fought his feet. The round ended with a the crowe the decision whether he back so strongly that at one time it smile on the champion's face, Burns should accede to Memsie's demand, looked as if he would turn the tide looking serious. "He caught me that

In the sixteenth round Wolgast cut chair, McCarty, after fruitlessly trying to loose like a tiger and so terribly did least. off out the orogram with other pouts, he punish his man that the crowd

THE ROUNDS.

The Insurrector' Advance Guard Are the Oaklander against the ropes, and were again in close embrace, during $320,000,000 in the corporation's securi- left Mazatlan and was on his way to full in the fighting, the fighters grin- not far behind and more than evened ning at each other. Burns assumed up matters with a similar dose, Wolhis turtle-like crouch, and then lifted gast smashed with forceful right and the champion clear off his feet with left chops to the face, but Burns neva terrible left to the jaw. It was a er for an instant broke ground. The attack is expected any hour. This short snappy half left hook, and Woi- champion jarred his man with a rain this afternoon by Captain E. L. Jen- gast was very much surprised. The nings of the power yach: Katherine, crowd yelled encouragement at Burns The yacht left Enservela at 3 yclock and the round ended without damage to either fighter.

Round 2-Wolgast shunted his man about the ring, but Burns flung a left the yacht, describes the situation as twice solidly to the jaw, and covered the champion with a battering defense. Burns scored lightly thrice with short arm lefts to the face. Wolgone crazy. Everything is in con- gast sought to make Burns "open were arrested twice as spies, but were gast drove two hard rights to the kidreleased as soon as we proved who neys and flereely uppercutted his nar we were. Recruits are being drilled on the nose with a right and left, starting the blobd flowing in a stream arrive they are taught how to handle Wolgast danced merrily and smilingly The Machinery of the Law Brought to a gun. The day we arrived 150 re. to his corner, while Burns took a seat with his face literally smeared with blood. It was Wolgast's round by ; big margin.

Round 3-Burns' nostrils were still Wolgast wilted momentarily. The entirely unable to control his men. round ended with Burns' face still a According to Col. Francisco Velas-

THAT WOOL SCHEDULE

It is called schedule "K"-the wool schedule-and it has caused a lot of worry and botheration as well as a tremendous amount of oratory in congress.

There are many business chances of pure wool and full yard wide outside of this wool schedule K-all you have to do to find many of them is to turn to The Republican classified colnmns, where there is a varied list offered from day to day.

Consider the various classification of The Republican want columns. What do you need most? Like as not you will find just the things or the opportunities that you seek most listed at. very special prices among today's offerings.

spectators yelled. Burns then electrified the crowd by rushing in and mixing it with the champion; landing several lefts and rights on the facbefore the gong ended the slugging It was Wolgast's round.

Round 5-After half/a minute's in feetual sparring, during which Wolast tried time and again to land nockout blow, the champion almost sent Burns out of the ring, more by sheer force of his weight, however, than his punches. Burns came back crouching almost to the knees, and they mixed it, fighting desperately head to head. Burns cut Wolgast's JONN nouth during this mix and the champion spat blood as he went to his corner. Both appeared as strong as at the start. It was Wolgast's round. Round 6-Wolgast rushed fiercely and almost slipped to his knees from a misdirected swing. They closed in, Wolgast tapping lightly at the face. urns stood up and drove a hard ght to the jaw, later following with wo lefts to the face. A vicious midring rally followed, both trying desperately to put in the finishing blow Frim determination marked Burns pattie and almost staggered the cham don with right and left short-arm ounches to the face. Wolgast fought cound so far. Round 7-They battled head to head Wolgast broke with a vicious straight right to Burns' sore nose, and kept Champion Wolgast gave Frankie Burns shooting at Burns' defense unceas of Oakland such an unmerciful beat- ingly. Burns kept covered and took ith all the force he could command out Burns was still full of fight as the round ended. One of Burns' eve was almost closed and there was a light cut on his ear. It was his bes mercifully intervened at the beginning | Round 8-Wolgast drove a left hool the ropes. Wolgast was staggered and It was a furious battle throughout, almost taken off his feet by a right under terrific fire and with blood powerful lefts to jaw, the first of time," said Wolgast, as he took his almost to a man arose and impor- forced matters, and Burns was soon Gus Anderson and Leonard Lauder tuned the referee to stop the contest, hanging to the ropes. The Oakland went ten fast rounds to a draw in Welsh remained obdurate, but Burns' boy fought back viciously, and they walk gives one a splendid view of Prescott nestling just below, with pineVaryangi class and bead view of Supervision of Manager Williams of the Mike Memsic in ten rounds.

In the second handlers realizing the hopelessness of fought shoulder to shoulder in the centeral permitting their charge to combat ter of the ring, each landing several further, tossed a towel into the ring times on the other's face and head further, tossed a towel into the ring times on the other's face and head that when Rockefeller sought to en- regards. (Signed) and Wolgast was proclaimed the wiftBurns put up a game fight and was ter the steel business a deal was put. Madero read dispatches today of the through which forced him to sell out attack on the train bearing Diaz to to his corner.

Round 10-Burns took the fighting to the champion and immeditely gast merely shook his head, rushing right and left jolts to the jaw. They to the head. There was a temporary right to the face, but Wolgast was to know what to expect next We the ropes, refused to do so. Wol-FLEEING.

(Continued on Page 7)

ANARCHY REIGNS IN CANANEA CAMP

a Standstill.

Tueson, Ariz, May 27.-Anarchy and bleeding when Wolgast cornered the a reign of terror rule in Cananca, ac-Oaklander and fairly smothered him cording to the refugees who are flock with short-arm punches aimed at the ing hither on horseback, afoot and face, most of them landing. Wolgast aboard trains. Forty-nine of the most staggered his man with a straight left, prominent men in the mining town but Borns came back with two left are in prison and nearly all the othstinging face punches. Burns followed ers are in flight. Cabral, the insurthis with a right and left to face and recto leader, the refugees assert, is mass of blood. Wolgast had the ad- quez, provisional ruler of Altar, men presented to them in a novel and are under arrest charged with having memory-compelling talk on some sub-Round 4-Burns sent a wicked left participated in a plot to blow up the ject of interest to the youthful mind, to the face, that sent the champion's town and kill Cabral's whole army. Mr. Thomas Gariside, who will adhead back. For the moment Wolgast Velasquez, who arrived here today, fought back like a man steer, and declared that the mayor is among noon, will speak from the subject landed telling purches to the face at those under arrest, charged with havclose range. Burns, his nose swollen ing connected wires leading to a clock to thrice its normal size, battled back in the municipal building with fulmi- given in Phoenix, and the manner in gamely. Wolgast rushed his man nating devices attached to 2,000 which Mr. Cariside treats it, and the from one end of the ring to the other, pounds of dynamite placed in the lesson he will teach through it are beating a tattoo on the Oaklander's barracks of the insurrecto soldiers. None of the judges or other officials of Cananca are allowed to perform speaker, and know his habit of sethe functions of their offices, according to other refugees.

Velasquez also confirmed the report that seven rebels in Lower California educational rooms of the association were executed by Altar. The men building, and all the youngsters of brought letters from Madero at Ju- the city are invited to attend. arez, but they were alleged to have been caught in acts of brigandage The prefect said that in all Lower California the rebels would be so dealt by Rev. J. E. Green, the railroad eigners, mostly Americans, will leave

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS. Its Future Assured in Mexico By Ma dero.

Juarez, May 27.—Representations beng made to him that efforts were being exerted to suppress the publication of El Pais, a newspaper of Mexico City, Madero late tonight sent ar orgent telegram to Barra, stating that hereafter he will oppose any limitation of the freedom of the press in

OF A BIRTH AFTER PEACE

Trust's Start

He rushed into the heat of the Precipitating Cause relegram of Congratulation Was Carnegie's Refusal to Observe Any Gentlemen's Agreements — His Subsequent Profits.

> Washington, May 27.-John W lates told the house "steel trust" in estigation committee today the histor-He was present at its birth. He deribed how it was the natural cutcom-Andrew Carnegie to be bound by the he early days of open competition in

He also teld of millions created almost in a breath; now the joining in the creation of the corporation, and the manner in which others were prevented from engaging in the Relating how Carnegle had been ending the steel business. Gates frank, progress, and the soundest democracy formed to throttle competition, and with justice, supports. I send you my at 40 cents on the dollar. Charging Carnegie with being a "bull Madero sahl he would leave for the steel trade.

in a china shop," Gates told of a mid- City of Mexico next week, his route Round 1-Burns at once began to locked arms. Wolgast straightened night conference between himself, being undetermined the champion out, shooting a vol. his man out with two right uppercuts. Schwab and Morgan, at which the Bouilla, minister of communications bey of light lefts at the head. Wol- to the jaw and Burns retailated with steel corporation was conceived, and and public utilities in Barra's cabinet, how it resulted in Carnegie getting telegraphed Madero tonight that he had flaying him with right and left swings which Burns uppercut twice with a ties for the steel interests which he the national capital.

a financial upheaval because it had provisional governor of the state of aned too much money on the stock Yucatan, left tonight for that state to 1960 to circle his steel interests with a once a student at Harvard, who was railroad of his own and to compete killed in the second battle of Bauche with the National Tube company, or- two months ago, was brought here and ganized by Morgan, by the erection of carried through the streets of Juarez a tube works at Ashtabula, O'ilo, were in a hearse, followed by an escort of factors that led to the birth of the cavalry. It will be shipped to his late steel combine.

NOVEL SUBJECT OF AFTERNOON ADDRESS

Boys' and Men's Meetings to be Addressed by Competent Speakers.

Knowing that boys of a certain age are impressed with the lessons of religion by having the truth Sacred Monkeys.

The address had never before been subjects for speculation among the people who know his ability as a lecting catchy titles for his practical ings were burned, all the residents havand helpful talks. The boys meeting ing fled to the mountains will be held at 2:30 o'clock in the

The usual open air Sunday afternoon men's meeting will be addressed today on the city hall square at 5:39 evangelist, who has been conducting revival services during the last week federal troops are preparing to evacuat the Center street M E, church,

W. Gates Saw Steel Normal Conditions Returning in North Mexico

TELLS INVESTIGATORS MADERO, PRIVATE CITIZEN

to New Provisional President-Body of Creighton, the Bridge Destroyer, Received at Juarez.

Juarez, May 27.-Normal conditions

From Barra came a reply to Madero's essage yesterday congratulating him on his inauguration as provisional resident, as follows: "City of Mexico, May 27, 1911.

that high office, I shall act to the best of my ability so that there may be orced to abandon his plans for ex- realized the aspirations of peace and Vera Cruz, deprecating the occurrence.

had formerly offered for $150,000,000 This is taken as an indication that conditions in Sinalog are normal, as Gates also told the committee of the Bonilla was to stay there till the state taking over the Tennessee Cool & Iron was pacified. The city of Chihuahua ompany by the steel corporation in the received the first official news concanic of 1907, a deal in which he was cerning the signing of the armistics interested as a stockholder in the Ten- and peace agreement a week ago, when nessee Coal & Iron company. This, he a message of that import from General said, was forced by the transactions Rascon, new minister of war, was forcarried out by Mr. Morgan and other warded tonight to General Villar, comfinanciers to save the Trust Company mander of the federal troops in the of America, which was threatened by military state of Chihuahua. Suarez, be ready to take office when named. Plans made by Carnegie in 1899 and The body of Captain F Creighton, home in Boston. Because of Creighton's work in destroying bridges and dynamiting trains, it will be a month before the lines south of here are in a normal condi-

PEACE UNHEARD OF.

The Slaughter Still Proceeding in Remote Regions.

Carral, May 25 .- Via El Paso, May 27. -Many federal officials, including jefe aliticos, have been killed, and scores of others placed in fail, stores looted and burned and hundreds of people are on the verge of starvation as a result of the reign of terror, waged in the state of Eurango and southern Chihuahua by bandits and insurrectos, who have heard nothing of the peace agree-

When Tomas Urkina, who claims to be an insurrecto commander of the Madero was perfecting peace plans, he answered that he would dictate peace terms in his territory, and the looting continued.

In the town of Villa Escobedo, a few miles south of here, municipal build-

A previous report that the government and military officials in the town of Guadalupe y Calvo, were killed has been confirmed. Jimenez is believed to: have been taken by the rebels. There is a great scarcity of food in this city. It is likely that 300 forin a body, overland, in wagons, The Watches, Diamonds and Jewelry, Bought,

Sold and exchanged. Highest cash price paid for Old Gold, Silver and Precious Stones.

N. FRIEDMAN

M'fg. Jeweler and Watch Repairing. 33 W. Wash. St., Phoenix, Arlz.